In Flanders Fields

In Flanders fields the poppies blow
Between the crosses, row on row,
That mark our place; and in the sky
The larks, still bravely singing, fly
Scarce heard amid the guns below.

We are the Dead. Short days ago
We lived, felt dawn, saw sunset glow,
Loved and were loved, and now we lie
In Flanders fields.

Take up our quarrel with the foe:
To you from failing hands we throw
The torch; be yours to hold it high.
If ye break faith with us who die
We shall not sleep, though poppies grow
In Flanders fields.

Lieutenant-Colonel John McCrae

Act of Remembrance

They shall grow not old,
As we that are left grow
old:

Age shall not weary
them,

Nor the years condemn.
At the going down of the sun and in the morning.
We will remember them.

We will remember them.

They were young, as we are young,

They served, giving freely of themselves.

To them we pledge, amid
the winds of time,
To carry their torch and never forget.

We will remember them.

Lest We Forget

On behalf of Kate Andrews High School's Students and Staff, Thank You for joining us.
